The aims and purpose of the Friends of Glenfern Green Wedge (FGGW) are:

- To secure as much land as possible in the GGW to be used as public reserve for the purposes of conservation and passive recreation.
- To manage and care for the GGW reserve in conjunction with other stakeholders including local and state government organizations, environmental groups, and the general community.
- To unite all stakeholders in the GGW reserve to achieve beneficial goals for the environment and the community.
- To protect and enhance the biodiversity of indigenous flora and fauna on the GGW reserve.
- To protect and enhance the GGW reserve as a community space and asset for current and future generations.
